Weight-Madden Scores with an Outsider

New York's Team Beaten by the Louisvilles Boston Outplays Cincinnati Again
- Washington, Chicago and Pittsburg Win by Large Scores-Many Other Games. The Brooklyns have won seven straight games, the Clevelands being disposed of easily again yesterday. They have a lead of 63 points over the Bostons, who are enjoying a similar winning streak, and, by outplaying the Cincinnatis once more, drew away from the St. Louis team, which was badly beaten by the Washingtons. The Chicagos walloped the Baltimores in impressive style, and are 15 points behind third place. Philadelphia was nowhere in the game with Pittsburg, and Louiswills heat New York. The results: Brooklyn, 18; Cleveland, 4.

BROOKLYN, 13; CLEVELAND, 4. Seven thousand people enthused over the fine playing of the Brooklyns at Washington Fark yesterday afternoon and were amused at the futile efforts of the Cleveland tail-enders to keep up with the fast pace. "Still Bill" Hill recupied the box for the visitors and his exbition was decidedly amateurish. He was ound for a dozen safe hits, gave nine bases on balls, hit a batsman, made two wild pitches and two poor throws. His work was such a severe nandicap that the Clevelands lost heart early n the game and toward the end fielded care-in the game and toward the end fleided carelessis.

In spite of his failure to pitch effectively in Friday's game kennedy was ordered by Manager Hanion to go in again yesterday. This time he had good control and when men were on bases he was well nigh invincible. Kennedy's support was superb. Casey, Dahlen, Jones, Daly and Farrell made brilliant plays which brought forth incessant applaise from the rooters. Casey and Kelley made three hits aplece, which materially helped the Brooklyns in run getting. Dowd and Cross did the best work for the wisitors, the former finding very little trouble in solving Kennedy's shoots.

Dowd's single and Cross's double yielded Claveland's first run in the opening linding. Then the Brooklyns made three in their half on keeler's safe hit, Kelley's base on balls and a three-bagger by Dahlen, the latter counting con Jones's long fiv to Harley. A beautiful double play by Daly and McGann disposed of the Clevelands in the second and made the crowd happy. The Brooklyns made two more in their half on a hit batsman, Hill's wild throw, a base on balls and singles by Casey and Keeler.

Splendid catches by Dahlen and Jones were throw, a base on balls and singles by Caser and Keeler.

Splendid catches by Dahlen and Jones were instrumental in the visitors third blank. Two more tallies went up for the Superbas, however, on two bases on balls, a wild pitch and hits by Jones and Farrell. Casey made a couple of electrical stops and throws in the fourth and had to bare his head. Kelley's hit, another wild throw by Hill, a base on balls and Jones's safe bunt netted another run for the home team in the last half, the score then standing Stol.

With two out in the fifth, Dowd, Harley and Cross made safe hits, and the first named talled Cleveland's second run, Cross being third out on a well-fielded grounder by Kennedy, Hill surprised the crowd when he struck out both Farrell and Kennedy in Brooklyn's turn, and made Casey pop out to Quinn. It was so unexpected that Hill was applauded when he walked to the bench.

Again in the eight the visitors gathered a both farrell and Kennedy in Brooklyn's turn, and made Casey poo out to Quinn. It was so unexpected that Hill was applauded when he walked to the bench.

Again in the sixth the visitors gathered a couple more runs, which proved to be the limit. McAllister and Lockhead both put base hits in centre field, the former counting on zimmer's single in the same place after Tucker had filed to Daly. The latter muffed Hill's easy fly, which was Brooklyn's only error, and Lockhead ran in. Even though Keeler got a life on Lockhead's fumble in the last turn, he couldn't score, as the next three hitters went out on pop files.

Casey robbed Quinn of a hit in the seventh by grabbing his heavy line drive in fine style, after which the Brooklyns clinched the game with four runs. McGann was safe on Lockhead's poor throw and Daly filed to Dowd, Farrell singled and on Kennedy's rap to Cross, McGann was caught and run down between third and home. Casey's third single scored Farrell and Cross's fumble of Kesler's tap filed the bags. Hill's wild pitch let Kennedy in and both Casey and Keeler romped home on Kelley's solid drive to left. Capt. Joe was forced and the score was 12 to 4.

Tucker hit for two bases in the eighth with two out, but was left. Brooklyn's thirteenth run was made in a way that showed why the Clevelands are at the tail end. Jones got four halls and was force by McGann. Daly hit to Cross, who tried to shut off McGann at second with a throw to Quinn. The latter was a foot from the bag, and as he couldn't touch it in time, he sent the ball to Tucker for the batsman. Daly had crossed first meanwhile, and both runners were safe. Hill gave bases on balls to Farrell and Kennedy and McGann walked home with a run that was a gift. With the bases still illed, Casey hit to the pitcher, who throw to Zimmer at the plate. gave cases on this to rarred, and neededy and McGann walked home with a run that was a gift. With the bases still filled, Casey hit to the pitcher, who threw to Zimmer at the plate. The big catcher lost his head and waited to tag Daly, who was forced home, instead of touching the plate and doubling-up Casey at first. Keeler was third out an a bounder to Quinn. Dowd hit for three bases in the nint with one out, but nobody could bring him in.

LOUISVILLE, 5; NEW YORK, 2.

Seymour made his appearance in the box for the New Yorks yesterday for the first time since the local players returned from their Western trip, and, barring his wildness, which can always be expected after a lay-off, the Albany pitcher showed up well. The crack southpaw, however, was unfortunate in being hit safely when men were on the bases. Seymour cannot be blamed for the defeat sustained by the New Yorks, as Day's men were entirely at sea in trying to fathom Dowling's curves. The Louisvilles' southpaw sent five men to first on balls, but with the bases occupied he steadled down and high files or easy bounders to the infielders would follow.

Manager Clarke made several changes in his team. He shifted Wagner to first and Ritchey to second and brought in Dexter from the outfield to cover short. Leach covered third and Hartzell right. The latter made a remarkable catch in the third inning, pulling in Seymour's long fly while leaning up against the ropes near the right field bleacheries. There was considerable kicking by the players of both teams. The score: LOUISVILLE, 5: NEW YORK, 2.

Turning or home Half Time made his bid and flashed to the front, but "Skeets" Martin kept Lothario extended and won by a neck in a grand drive. Prestidigitatrice tired in the stretch and Half Time beat her four lengths for the place. The race was worth $10,000 and the distance was one mile. Another strong public favorite was bowled over in the Hudson Stakes of $3,500, for twoyear-olds, at five furlongs. issue and the Keenes added Doublet, although his winning penalty and the allowances to the others put him in at a disadvantage of fifteen pounds. Prince of Melbourne was most fancied, with High Order and Doublet second choices. P. J. Dwyer's Hanover colt Withers was among the outsiders. High Order took command soon after flagfall and held the track to the end, winning by a length from Maribert, who beat Withers as length and a half for the place. Trumpet wound up at the neck of Withers. It was a fast-run race, and McCue but up a nent ride on the winner.

All but five of the twenty-two handicapped turned out for the all-aged dash which opened the day's sport. Pat Dunne's western breadwinner, Bannockburn, who won so impressively on Thursday, ruled a mild favorite over Toluca, while there was a pronounced plunge at post time on Judge Tarvin. The latter colt at once outran MeMeekin and held his advantage to the end, but the issue was in doubt up to the last stride, as only short necks divided Judge Tarvin. Toluca, McMeekin and Vertigo as they flashed past the judges. Imperator, usually the pacemaker is any company, broke at the rear of the bunch this time and remained there.

The shrewd Kentuckian horseman, John E. Madden, had both Tillo and Holland in the second race, a handicap for three-year-olds and upward, at one mile and a quarter. Madden withdrew Tillo and pinned his faith to the other one, but nobody accepted the incident as a tip, and Holland went to the post at 60 to 1. Lanky Bob ruled a slight favorite over Warrenton and Jeannot in the field of nine. W. H. Clark's colt made the running until well into the stretch. Lanky Bob closed fast in the run to the turn for home, but failed to squeeze whome, but failed to squeeze whome, but failed to squeeze whome had been lying fifth also showed finishing speed, and, although Warrenton hunted him to the bitter end, Mr. Eustis's horse took the blace by half length from 7 to 0 to even money in the field of fiteen maiden two-year-olds that made up the fifth race. RESULTS ON OTHER TRACKS.

At St. Louis.

St. Louis, June 5.—Saturday half holiday, with delightful weather and the Club Members' Handicap, united in drawing a large attendance to the races this afternoon, Betting was brisk. Pontet Canet added interest to the first race by twice running away, covering the curve each time before being stopped, and was out of the running when the horses did get away. There were but four entries for the Club Members' Handicap, Algol, Ed Farrel and Found being scratched, the favorite winning. Summary.

At Latonia.

Cincinnari, June 6.—The Oaks and a strong card throughout drew a large attendance at Latonia today. Four favorites, one medium and one long shot won. The track was fast until the fifth race, when there was a heavy shower. Although Rush beat May Hempstead at Louisville, and John Bright did the same thing here on last Saturday, Hempstead was heavily played even at oddson, as her showing with Bright was considered very good. Rush also had a big following. The latter, with Jos Hill up, who went to the post an even-mony favorite with Hempstead, set a pace that left, her without steam at the end of the half mile, and Hempstead, who had been closely trailing her, won as she pleased from that stage. May Jane, Baker & Gentry's two-year-old filly, by G. W. Johnson-Silver Rell, the 1 to 5 favor-tie in the fifth race, loafed all the way round and won in a slow cauter. The Judges took Boland off Krisa Kringle in the third race and put Turner up, Bummary:

LACROSSE.

Western Canada by 4 Goals to 2.

The Crescent A. C.'s crack lacrosse team. rhich is stronger this year than ever before because of the addition to its attack of Dobby and Wall of ice hockey fame, gained one of the tain that Rogers has on several occasions most noteworthy victories in its history yesterday afternoon, at Bay Ridge, by defeating the ronige his grounds when the Superbas and Excelsiors of Bramoton, Ont., the champions Orioles played there, and at the same time of Western Canada, by a score of 4 goals to 2. | charged 75 cents to the grand stand Although the latter were not superior to the and 25 cents to the entire bleachers, Toronto University twelve, which was defeated by 11 to 8 by the Crescents on Memorial Day.

The Brooklyn people argue that Rogers should be compelled to have a 50-cent admission rate, which so far he has refused to establish in dethey rank higher in Canadian prestige, and the victory puts the Americans on a plane with Do-minion teams of the first quality and enhances the interest in the Crescent's match with the Montreals, which is scheduled for next Saturday.
At the outset of the game yesterday the skill day.

At the outset of the game yesterday the skill and experience of the Canadians were made apparent, for with searcely an effort they passed the ball from the face-off down the field to Robson, where it was captured by the Crescents, who at once showed that they could match it by doing an equally clever bit of attick work. From then on to the end of the half, which closed with a score of 2 to 1 in favor of the Canadians, the play was fairly even. In the second half, the struggle was fast and furious. After about five minutes work Wall drove a goal, which tied the score. Then, against a desperate opposition on the part of the Canadians, who saw their colors threatened, two more goals were scored within the next twenty minutes. The Creacents afterward massed their men on the defensive, and blocked every move of their opponents until the remaining five minutes had clarsed. Credit for the victory was largely due to the goal keeping of the veteran, ex-Capt. Garvin, who stopped at least five lightninglike drives from passing between the posts. The Creacent team was somewhat weakened by the absence of Jack Curry, whose hand was injured in the match with Toronto University. Hodges, a young Johns Hopkins man, however, played creditably in his place. The Canadians took their defeat in a sportamanlike manner and admitted that they had played their best. George Siler Opposed to Refereeing Outside of the King. CRICAGO, June 3 .- Apropos to the suggestion contained in a New York despatch that Referee George Siler would be asked to judge the Fitzsimmons-Jeffries fight from a place outside of the ring, the noted referee has this to say about the matter: "Whatever the principals agree to of course will be satisfactory to me. I agree to of course will be satisfactory to me. I cannot, however, indorse the plan of refereeing the contest from without the ropes. I am not enumored of the chances a frail man like myself takes inside of a ring with husky men like the principals in the coming contest. A wild swing from either man if landed on the referee might 'put him away,' and these chances always confront him, but I think the place for a referee is as near on top of the flighters as he can get. I know the method in vogue at the National Sporting Club and other English flighting institutions where they judge the contest leisurely from a seat outside the ropes. I also know that the commission of a foul every now and then escapes these judges. One fighter with his back to the referee and between that official and the man he is fighting can commit a foul and have it escape the man who sits in judgment on the buttle, for the simple reason that he is in the direct line of vision.

"I saw the punch at Carson landed by Fitz-simmons when the official timekeeper and the timekeepers for both Corbett and Fitzsimmons did not see it. That is to say, they did not see where Fitzsimmons's left hand landed. In proof of this look at the pictures taken at the ringsids. They show Fitzsimmons's left show boring in, but the point of lodgment of the blow escaped the camera. They can't make my job any too easy for me, and if it were possible to do justice to both men and the public money I would not be averse to refereeing the contest from a lounge or a hammock. I do not, however, fancy the idea of being placed in a position where a foul one escape me."

If You Haven't Tried It Before cannot, however, indorse the plan of refereeing

PRINCETON'S WATERLOO.

Mer Baseball Team Defeated by Yale by a Score of 8 to 0.

New Haven, June 3 .- The first championship baseball game between Yale and Princeton was played here this afternoon and resulted in the auccess of Yale by the score of 8 to 0. Yale played in better form than at any other time this season. The victory was made more crushing by the fact that Princeton was not able to make a hit. The whole story is told when it is said that the Princeton men could not connect with Robertson, the heady Yale pitcher. Only four Princetonians reached first case, and only two reached second base. the other hand. Yale touched up Hillebrand for nine hits, one of which was a three-bagger. He gave six bases on balls, made two costly wild pitches and hit three men, filling the bases in the latter manner twice.

Yale secred two runs in the second inning. Wallace and Camp each made a bit, and Camp stole second. Sullivan was hit by the pitcher and the bases were filled. Waddell proved equal to the occasion, and lined out a pretty hit into left field, on which two men came home Then Eddy struck out, Robertson was out at first, De Saulies got first on balls, and Then Eddy struck out. Robertson was out at first, De Saulies got first on balls, and Quinby struck out. Yale added one more run in the third inning. Wear, the first man up, made a hit. Wallace got his base on a passed ball. Camp struck out and wear scored on a passed ball. Sullivan was out at first and Waddell struck out. It was then thought that Frinceton had a fighting chance, and the small contingent which supported the yellow and black cheered lustily. The side was retired, however, in one, two, three order.

Princeton's real Waterloo came in the fifth inning, when Yale scored three runs. Wallace went out at first, Camp reached first on balls. Sullivan made a safety and Waddell was hit by the pitcher. The bases were thus filled. Camp scored on Eddy's out, shortstop to first base. Robertson was also hit by a pitched ball. Two more runs were scored on De Saulles's single, who went out a minuje later at second on Quinby's grounder. Yale was blanked in the next three innings, but scored two more in the ninth. Wallace was sent to first on four balls and Camp went out on an easy fly ball to Hutchmson. Then Sullivan sent a pretty liner between left and centre fields. Ho got to third on the hisand Wallace came in. Waddell lifted a high fly into centre which was caught, but Sullivan scored the eighth run. Eddy went out, second to first.

The only real scare experienced by Yale was in the sixth inning, when two men were out. Eafer, one of the bardest hitters, was at bat. He lined out one which seemed good for three bases. It looked as if it were going ten feet over Wear's head in centre field, but he made a grand run, jumped into the air and caught the ball. Another star play was made by Camp in the third inning, when he ran back into left field and captured the ball as it came over his shoulder. The score:

LEAGUE DIRECTORS TO MEET. Will be Here To-Morrow to Consider

Charges Against John I. Rogers. The National League's Board of Directors, mposed of representatives of the Boston, Philadelphia, Washington, Chicago, Cincinnati and St. Louis clubs, will meet at the Fifth Avenue Hotel to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. As stated in yesterday's Sun, this meeting will be convened at the request of the Brooklyn and Baitimore clubs which have charges to make against John I. Rogers of the Philadelphia club relating to the entangled gate receipts problem in that city. The Board of Directors will be informed by representatives of the Brooklyn and Baltimore clubs that section 48 of the League constitution has been violated in that Rogers has refused to charge a 50-cent rate of admission to his grounds when the Brooklyns and Baltimores have played there this season.

It is down in black and white that ever League club must charge an admission fee of 50 cents and may also charge 25 cents. Nothing is stipulated in the constitution regarding the usual 75 cents charged for admission to the grand stand. The Brooklyn officials mainnotified the Philadelphia public not to patbe compelled to have a 50-cent admission rate, which so far he has refused to establish in defance of the constitution and President Young. They say that Rogers never charges but 50 cents to the grand stand when clubs other than Brooklyn and Baltimore play there, and that he is trying to injure them financially. In a letter to President Young Rogers charges Ebbets and Hanlon of the two protesting clubs with conspiracy, and threatens to bring civil and criminal suits against them in this city. He also declares that if the Brooklyn and Baltimore clubs carry this matter to extremes he will do his best to prevent them from playing Sunday games in States where the law prohibits such contests. In his characteristic way Rogers notifies President Young that he will continue charging 75 and 25 cents when the Brooklyns and Baltimores play in Falladeiphia, although he uses about 2,000 words to express his intentions. As the Philadeiphia Club will not be allowed to vote on the question before the board, there may be some fun, as Bruch, Hart and Wagner are known to be after Rogers's scalp. It is expected that several other matters of importance will be discussed by the magnates.

Gymnastics and Swimming at Columbia

A gymnastic and swimming exhibition took place at Columbia University yesterday after-noon. The occasion was the opening function of Columbia's commencement week. About 1,500 alumni students and their friends attended. The big exercise hall and the marble pool were delightfully cool. This fact added to the enjoyment of the performances. Bojus, Hays and twelve students opened the exhibition with work on the parallel bars. Tricks on the horizontal bar and the German horse ended the apparatus exhibition.

Otto Pullich and George Matthew did some remarkable feats in the course of this work. Then came a fencing bout between J. P. Mitchell, 149, and M. Gouspy, a "single stick" bout between Mr. Bojus and H. Ward, general wrestling and tumbling, and some clever club swinging by Instructor Hays.

In the swimming pool instructor Charles Bolroyd plunged on a single spring about sixty-five feet, imitated a torpedo, did some motiogless floating and a remarkable sinking feat, rising again to the surface. The students gave exhibitions of their prowess in double floating, diving, doing flips, &c., from the marble pulpit, swimming under water, short-distance racing and playing water polo. The spectators were greatly amused. Their appliance was frequent and generous. Hays and twelve students opened the exhibi-
